Shanghai: Shanghai is the most populous city in China and one of the most populous cities in the world. A global city, Shanghai exerts influence over global commerce, finance, culture, art, fashion, research and entertainment. The city is located in the middle portion of the Chinese coast, and sits at the mouth of the Yangtze River. The city is a tourist destination renowned for its historical landmarks, such as the Bund and City God Temple, and its modern and ever-expanding Pudong skyline including the Oriental Pearl Tower. Today, Shanghai is the largest center of commerce and finance in mainland China, and has been described as the "showpiece" of the world's fastest-growing major economy.

Paper Submission: Prospective authors are invited to submit full-length papers in PDF format prepared in the Springer's Lecture Notes in Computer Science (LNCS) template and written in English at the submission website (https://cmt.research.microsoft.com/ICIG2017/), with 10 to 12 pages with for technical content including figures and references. All the papers accepted for presentation at the conference will be included in the Proceedings of ICIG 2017, to be published by Springer's LNCS series as well as be indexed by EI.
